

Worship Leader for New Worship Service

A year and a half ago, Aldersgate United Methodist Church in Tustin launched a new ministry and worship service called CONNECT. The vision of CONNECT is to engage a new generation of wonderers and wanderers and develop them into growing disciples of Jesus Christ who participate in his mission to make all things new. We are seeking a worship leader who will guide our community into authentic and inspirational worship as we pursue this vision.

Our worship leader will partner with our pastors to oversee and coordinate all of the musical elements of the weekly worship service, including sound set up, song selection, development of a worship band, and rehearsals. We're looking for someone who loves worship and can draw people into the presence of God. We're also looking for a team player who values real community and is ready to invest in this new venture.

Currently we are livestreaming our worship service only – there is no in-person attendance. Once it is safe to do so, we will hold in-person worship with a simultaneous livestream.

Responsibilities:

- Plan, arrange and lead the worship music for our Sunday worship service
- Select songs for our Sunday worship service, coordinating with the pastor as necessary
- Recruit new musicians and singers into the worship band as needed
- Direct the worship band, by leading it during the Sunday worship service, conducting rehearsals, and coordinating musicians and singers for each week.
- Work with AV/tech crew to oversee the set-up and tear-down of sound equipment before and after each service.

Qualifications:

- Mature Christian with a strong personal faith
- Demonstrated commitment to the mission and vision of Aldersgate UMC
- Professional-level singing voice
- Demonstrated strong musical leadership preferably through guitar and/or piano
- Previous experience as worship leader is preferred

Experience Requirements:

- Prior worship band experience required
- Background in vocal and instrumental music is required
- Knowledge of church worship music recommended

Hours:

- 10 hrs/week
- $20/hr

To apply for this position, please send your resume to Pastor Tim Ellington at revtim@aumctustin.org.
